

Close to the Vein

RF7

Ten years later
nothings really changed Struggle everyday just to end up the same Kicked a few habits picked up a few more Getting pretty hard having to keep the score

Looking at the clock
like every fucking day Spent ten years
doing it your fucking way Nothing "broke loose"
No "tomorrow" never came Telling you baby "I'm getting
close to the Vein

Close to the Vein
Like a long lost love
Close to the Vein
Ya know it fits like a glove
Close to the Vein
Like a killer at my door
Close to the Vein
Time to settle the score

Staring at the stars
my hands start to shake Think I'm on the verge of a big mistake Rip off my shirt
got a fever in my brain Telling you baby "I'm getting
close to the Vein
