

Several Shades of Why

J Mascis

Theres no peace, little comfort, no ones shoulder not a wrinklins of a time that made you colder im not saying much i tried hard thats all i do tried and waited then got tired thats about it whit my time whit my timeGot to wait this time why should i have time to answer?
i cant go back, its faster dont expect it cause the endings a disaster nothing, nothing, nothing man, a little laughter with my time with my timeGone at it the wrong way thought id find out but i missed it if i make it through ill run and stop the twistin way i steered us offll lose it just to give in hell may not dwel on the dead how about th living?
with my time
