

Red Toupee

Al Stewart

to catalina on a fishing boat we call it henry cisneros we got no money but we stay afloat the jellyfishes don't scare us you're telling everybody life's a ball too many pleasures to mention you do a cartwheel in the shopping mall you seem to get their attention in your red toupee in your red toupee you take your number to a broadway play it keeps her well out of danger you're blowing bubbles in the matinee you never looked any stranger in your red toupee in your red toupee people say that you're unusual you just tell them they're confused if only they were more like you they'd brighten up their day in your red toupee in your red toupee promenades in furs and laces people put on airs and graces bedroom eyes in boardroom faces oh where will it lead to catalina on a fishing boat
we call it henry cisneros
we got no money but we stay afloat those jellyfishes don't scare us in our red toupees oh we got our red toupees in your mauve toupee turquoise toupee
in your green toupee cerise toupee
why are you wearing that strange toupee

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>