

Me Again

J Mascis

Tell me everything you've heard
Daunting and a bit unsure
Feel I've gotten insecure
Gotta take it on your word
Said my mind is overrun
Said I'm free again
Know it cannot be undone
Not 'till I'm free again
Sent my mind some other place
Said my mind had no more space
And I begged you not to go
Look like you already know
Made a section made of me
Yes, I'm free again
Questioning my recipe
Unless it's free again
Sentimental me
Getting all I see
Trace the scourge right out of me
Am I free again?
