The World Is Gonna Change You

RADIORADIO

My good man, its understood
You been doin everything you want to
But never doing anything you shouldI hope it breaks your heart
I hope it breaks your heartMy good man, your send of touch
Lay you hands onto her body
Man, I bet you wish you hadnt seen so muchI hope it breaks your heart
I hope it breaks your heartBecause everybody knows
A broken heart is changinMy good friends, what will it take?
Why is it you think you want it?
Tell me, who is it that you will forsake?I hope it breaks your heart
I hope it breaks your heartTurn away, turn away, turn away, turn around
The days are gone, the nights are long
The world is gonna change you.
