Leave This World

Sponge

I'm looking for a reason
I'm looking for escape
I'm looking out for something
To fill this empty space
I'm fighting everybody
I'm fighting everything
I'm fighting what I can't see
I'm fighting what is in meLeave this world behind
I'm living with no answers
I'm running out of questions
I'm running out of time
How long can I keep waiting?
How long can I hold on?
Give me something to believe in
Give me something to belong
It's time to find an answer
Is love all that matters?
It's time to break the silence
It's time I had my say
It's not about my feelings
It's not about my way
Broken like a heart
Broken like a chain
Broken like a whip
Broken like a vase
You may
Leave this world behind
I'm living with no answers
I'm running out of questions
I'm running out of timeTake a minute think about it
Take a minute think again
It's all you've ever wanted
It's the way it has to end
Broken like a heart
Broken like a chain
Broken like a whip
Broken like a vase
You mayLeave this world behind
I'm living with no answers

I'm running out of questions
I'm running out of time
