

Daydream Nightmare

Grace Slick & The Great Society

When you don't know what you're ever gonna be.
And, you think you're much too good for pleasing me.
But now I'm gonna run away, taking all the fun away.
Oh, watch me run. I see all the wisdom in your eyes.
But now I know, all you've told me is lies.
Now I'm gonna run away, you've taken the fun away.
Oh, watch me run. You move around as graceful as you can.
And all my days, turned into one night mare.
But now I'm gonna run away, takin' the fun away.
Watch me run
