

Jungles of Jupiter (Acoustic Version)

Toyah

(Words Willcox/Music Bogen, Spalding)

The Jungles of Jupiter
Naked plant on naked flesh
Wild essence in wild minds
Making love out of time
Blistered confusion in crystal caves
Shattered lights
Blow my hair in a trillion waves
The gauntlet of gold
Chariots of flames
The misty mountain kings lane
Hold my head to your scent
We will sway in the breeze
Whisper secrets and sweet sounds
Rings in the trees and our heads are crowned
Blistered confusion in crystal caves
Shattered lights
Blow my hair in a trillion waves
The gauntlet of gold
Chariots of flames
The misty mountain kings lane
Send me a city
And build it deep
Within the land
Where the real people sleep
The jewel and the grail
The eye in the ice
We'll watch the real people live their lives
Send me a city
An intrusion in time
We'll return to the darkness
Sad androids of mine
Orphans of technology
Orphans of technology
Wingless angels in soundless flight
Draw their swords
And lacerate the night
In the Jungles of Jupiter
Naked plant on naked flesh

Wild essence in wild minds
Clashing bodies
Making metallic chimes
Sad androids of time
Sad androids of time
