Blind

Refused

Blind leading blind
Of course they will not find any reason
Why to give it a try
I can't be the only one who has learned to see
Or am I the stupid one alone and naive?
And therefore I tryTo be myself with honesty
To live my life poison free
To be the best that I can be
To keep an open mind so that I can see
Running towards the edge, of course you will fall
That's the way it goes when you don't look at allI know, I'm not stupid or at least I don't think so
I always try to look ahead on the path I walk
With my open eyes
I see a difference between illusion and reality
We seen the total stupidity in mankind
And sometimes, I wish that I was blind
