Teen Suicide

you said you hate yourself so let me feed you strawberries off a plate i bought from a widow who was selling her husbands things and we'll see if you still hate yourself if you still hate yourself i'll eat you out for an hour in your room cause i love giving head
we'll cut ourselves and swallow chunks of broken glass i don't care about finishing college i'll buy the biggest tv that my credit card allows me we'll watch the food network for the rest of our lives
