The Blues Are Still Blue (Radio Edit)

Belle and Sebastian

Look at the kid from school

He's teaching mamas and papas how to be a little cool

He's changing fashion, the way he dress

The tracksuits are old, and the hoody's way too moody

For a kid with the will to funk

He dances in secret; he's a part-time punkShe's getting off the plane

She wants to write a thesis on the population underprivileged

The kids fighting up the lane

The kids fighting up the lane Shop lifting, just drifting

Like The Switchblade And The Cross

But if there's trouble she's got the moves

She's taking an elementary class in Kung ful left my washing in the launderette

You can put some money on it, you can place a little bet

That when I see my washing

The black will be grey and the white will be grey

But the blues are still blueI'm crying out for my mum

If the malady don't go away we're in a little trouble

With the boss of the company

I'm a singer, a swinger I'm a layabout but laying on

The dock in the lazy sun

Will never quite relegate me to a bumI left my lady in the launderette

You can put some money on it, you can place a little bet

That when I see my lady

The black will be white and the white will be black

But The Blues Are Still BlueBaby, I love your face

I've been creeping round this town because?

Well, creeping's just my way

But with a little wink I'll be there

I'll be excited for a week, but then excitement starts to fade

I know your young, but you're out of touch

You're French, your vocabulary's not quite formedI left my homework in the launderette

I got a letter from my mamma which my stupid dog has ate

I hid behind the fence

Here comes the deputy head with the bark of a bulldog He's not making much senseI left my lady in the launderette

You can put some money on it, you can place a little bet

That when I see my lady

The black will be white and the white will be black

But the blues are still blue?
