

Newborn Sun (feat. MilÃ°/Mila Mar)

Angelzoom

Why cry all the people staring at the sky?
Listen to the Preachermen who prophesy
Angels lost their light, can't give us a new dawn
A kingdom of no faith and hope is born One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun
One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun Why die all the angels guarding our light?
Lost inside the maze of everlasting night
People broke their heart with bombs and guns and greed
Shaped a desert based on hate and need One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun
One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun Why cry all the angels staring at the rain?
Watching all the children who got fathers cane
Won't we ask that God do harmony on earth?
That peace and love and hope our hearts reserve One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun
One light will tear apart the night
Bring back the newborn sun
