This Garden

Levellers

Blood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenI never thought, I'd see the day
When you became what you've become
It's easy now just to look away
And leave your conscience on the runSpend so much time not looking for an answer
But someone else's to blame
As long as you don't take the drop
To you it's all the sameBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenSometimes, I like to get away
Chase a thought and fly
The people around here will never change
They're too scared to look outsideCommunity spirit, neighborhood watch
Curtains twitching all the time
Got to have a look at what next door's got
'Cos your credit's on the lineBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenDon't waste your time with your visions of the future
And your party line
'Cos your eyes have blinded to the people in the gutter
Who are fighting to surviveWhen I was out, I saw a fox
He was fighting for his life
His eyes were wide but his mind was shut
To the red coat bugle criesWhen he reached his home his path was blocked
By some sportsman's clever guise
If this is as far as your culture's got and I deny itBlood, sweat and tears

Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matter
Just the things that you do
In this gardenBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matterBlood, sweat and tears
Really don't matterReally don't matter
Really don't matter
