

Sugar On the Side

Blondie

I left a note on the mirror
Took the keys to the brand new car
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
It couldn't be any clearer
It already went to far
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
Don't need your sympathy
I know you're not over me, over me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine
I'd kill to see
When your eyes get ahold of me, hold of me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine
You'd whisper words in the darkness
Turn everything upside down
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
You lied all about, I figured it out
And then you went and left it on your phone
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
Don't need your sympathy
I know you're not over me, over me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine
I'd kill to see
When your eyes get ahold of me, hold of me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine
(RAP)
I left a note on the mirror
Took the keys to the brand new car
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
You'd whisper words in the darkness
Turn everything upside down
So don't get mad at me cause you know you treat me wrong
Don't need your sympathy
I know you're not over me, over me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine

I'd kill to see
When your eyes get ahold of me, hold of me
And with a little sugar on the side
I'll be fine, I'll be fine
