

Country Girl

Black Sabbath

Fell in love with a country girl, mornin' sunshine,
She was up from a nether world, just to bust another soul
    Her eyes were an endless flame, unholy lady
    Desire wore a special name, made to snatch
Your soul away, yeahWe sailed away on a crimson tide,
    Down the river,
    Left my heart on the other side
    All to break it into bits
    Her smile was a winter song
    A Sabbath ending
    Don't sleep or you'll find me gone
Just an image in the air, oh yeahIn dreams I think of you
    I don't know what to do with myself
    Time has let me down
    She brings broken dreams, falling stars
    The endless search for where you are
So Wrong, so wrong, so wrong, so wrongFell in love with a country girl, mornin' sunshine,
She was up from a nether world, just to bust another soul
    Her eyes were an endless flame, unholy lady
    Desire wore a special name, made to snatch
    Your soul away, yeah
