

Bounty Hunter

Omen

I am the bastard
Fallen from grace
I am the nightmare
Your gonna me face to faceI am the hunter
Killing is my game
When you least expect me
I might set you aflameI am the hunter
If you meet my price
I will do the dirty deed
On a human sacrificeAll these years I've traveled
From the desert to the sea
I am the man with the final plan
To set your spirit freeCross my path in terror
Mercy, I've never tried
I've given no fair warning
To the uncounted who have diedThe battle axe, I'm wielding
Is favored to the gun
Brass knuckles are a pleasure
There's only pieces when I'm doneYou'll never see me coming
Yet you'll feel the pain
Shadows hide my evil
I'm on the prowl againI am the hunter
Assassin from days of old
I hunt my bounty
For silver and for gold
