

Never

All The Luck In The World

We wish, we wish
And all we do is wait
And we hope, we hope
But never do we pray
'Cause we know
There's not much to say We grow, we grow
But never do we change
We mold, we fold
We always rearrange a dream
When it is not a success It's gotta be this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one, it's you It's gotta be this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one, it's you Now and then I think of what you said
And it eats me up
Running through my head
So just beat me up
So I can feel your pain I know, I know that you do think of me
Not as a lesson learned
But a fond memory
But I wish I never knew you
Wish I never asked your name It's gotta be this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one, it's you It's gotta be this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one
I know it is, I know it is
It's this one, it's you And I know, I know it's difficult
I know, I know it's difficult
We've grown, we've grown
So far apart But these ships, these ships
Don't sail away
They wait, they wait

For another day
And they will float again Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again
Oh, no, we lost the words again Now and then I think of what you said
And it eats me up
So just beat me up
So I can feel your pain I know, I know that you do think of me
But a fond memory
But I wish I never knew you
Wish I never asked your name
