Soul Rock

Ferras

So if you're gonna leave me, I got a few words to say
I'm trouble in the morning but you knew that anyway
And truth is you're the reason that I wake up each day
And I don't need anybody else to tell me
You are my soul rock when the tide is up
And the waves are crashing in on me
Soul rock when I've had enough
Of the wreck of everything
These streets got an undertow
And the city is sinking, ooh
You're the only hope I hold on to
When I'm drowning
This is for the damage and the madness that I made
I know I can be thoughtless but I promise that'll change
My heart may be bulletproof but it's still gonna break
Don't say, there's anybody else, tell me, come on, tell me
You are my soul rock when the tide is up
And the waves are crashing in on me
Soul rock when I've had enough

Of the wreck of everything
These streets got an undertow
And the city is sinking, ooh
You're the only hope I hold on to
When I'm drowning
You are my soul rock when the tide is up
And the waves are crashing in on me
Soul rock when I've had enough
Of the wreck of everything
These streets got an undertow
And the city is sinking,
Ooh, you're the only hope I hold on to
(I don't need anybody else, now)
You, you're the only hope I hold on to
(I don't need anybody else, now)
Ooh, you're the only hope I hold on to
When I'm drowning
