

You and Me

Tessanne Chin

I wish you wouldn't take me for granted
Like my tomorrow's guarantee
I wish you wouldn't talk down to me
Like I was someone you wouldn't carry
You don't take me seriously The door seems to shut when I can't feel you call
You're not there for my needs
You don't even say please
You are not easy to love
When I think we are giving up+
I just fall to my knees
Cause I know i still believe it
You and Me (x2) Baby, can you hear me
Still want you (ahh ha ahh)
I still..... love you, love you, love you
It's just that every time I play this down song
I start to cry, what I wouldn't give to go back in time
To find the who, the what, the when and why, the promise down from my heart/eye The door seems to shut when I can't feel you call
You're not there for my needs
You don't even say please
You are not easy to love
But when I think we are giving up
I just fall to my knees
Cause I know it still believe it
You and Me (Hey yeah)
You and me (me, me, yeah, hey, yeah)
You and me (oh no no, no, no, no)
You and me Baby I'm falling, I'm falling, I can't help myself
Baby I'm falling and I'm falling and I can't help myself
Cause you are the one I need
You and I still believe You and me (baby)
You and me (me, me, yeah yeah)
You and me (Oh no no, no, no, no)
You and me
