

The Deep

Red Fang

How can you give her a name?
When blood and body are the same
To take a breath for her
To make a home for you
We are the only ones she knew
Rapture
Is calling
To master
Rule of three
She's nameless and faceless
Her eyes are my eyes
She hears me and feels me
I fail her, she saves me
How can you just fade away?
Away, without a shadow trace
The three in we that has freed me to be weak
The joy and sadness of the deep
Ecstatic narcosis
You hide it inside me
The rapture, 3 calling
To master the path of we
She's nameless and faceless
Her eyes are my eyes
She hears me and feels me
I free her, she frees me
Ecstatic narcosis
We hide it inside us
The rapture of the deep
Three master the path of we
