

Explosions

Coco Morier

In a bed amongst the stones
When the tide will crush your bones
In the dirty water
We are sleeping underWhen the madness rings our ears
Will you drink away my tears?
I just wanna have you
Tell me that you want toWith your smile that turns to gold
And your eyes that bear your soul
Does it really matter?
Tell me what you're afterLights out, baby
Now you're mine
Don't fall behind I'd love
To feel you all over
Don't care what you do
I'll light the fire inside of you
And we can make an explosionEven when you've gone too far
Well you'll always have my heart
I will hold you closer
That I've ever held youAnd who knows where this will lead
But it's not too hard for me
You're the one to fight for
I will always want moreLights out, baby
Now you're mine
Don't fall behind I'd love
To feel you all over
Don't care what you do
I'll light the fire inside of you
And we can make an explosionThat's all
I'm on fire
I'm on fireFire
I'm on fire
That's all
I'm on fireLights out, baby
Now you're mine
Don't fall behind I'd love
To feel you all over
Don't care what you do
I'll light the fire inside of you
And we can make an explosion
