

Push Back

Another Cynthia

Wake up where you don't want to be Break up
when you thought you were free I'm gonna push back
'cause you always push on me
When you fall down do you see the ground I see?

So I know you enjoy being alone dealing with mistakes you know you don't want to own So point your finger
I won't be there to see

I made my baby cry
Those stupid recycled lines
Past I've always stood aside
Not gonna walk away
Not this time

Take back
the way we done some things Take back
the hell that it can bring Born of regret and late night drinks Live up to my own opinion of me

I made my baby cry
Those stupid recycled lines
Past I've always stood aside
Not gonna walk away
Not this time

So maybe we'll dine someday on me Sometimes love deals with you wouldn't think So I'll push back

Without taking a look to see and when you fell down I saw the ground you see

I know you didn't enjoy being alone dealing with places you could not call home But you joked that I had better things to believe

I made my baby cry
Past I've always stood aside
Not gonna walk away
