Say You're Sorry

Kaedyn Kashmir

Well I donâ€™t blame ya itâ€™s my fault that you are in denial
If we could solve things again and reconcile
Our differences
How do we go on like this?
You tried to make it work but I gave up and walked away
Didnâ€™t want to make you suffer but Iâ€™ll make it worse someday
But donâ€™t you sound conceited when you say that you look better without me

Just say youâ€™re sorry
And Iâ€™ll forget the things you said
Or at least pretend that I did
Just say youâ€™re sorry
I wonâ€™t believe it, thatâ€™s okay
I know that itâ€™s better off this way

I hate to be the one to bring you some reality
You say that we are all equal but I know that we arenâ€™t free
You are not the only one who thinks that what youâ€™ve done is right for me
Now I have decided to put the blame on you
You said that you knew better, do you still think thatâ€™s true
You think that itâ€™s my fault
But itâ€™s because of the things you do

Just say youâ€™re sorry
And Iâ€™ll forget the things you said
Or at least pretend that I did
Just say that youâ€™re sorry
I wonâ€™t believe it, thatâ€™s okay
I know that itâ€™s better off this way
