Dinosaur Jr.

What is it?

Who is it?

Where is it? A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl

A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl

Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl

Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl I stopped to call, tried to feel it all

Stuck my hand and pulled real hard, got stretch in miles, not in yards

Then I read about all those who believe all of your lies

Sunlight brings the rage right in your eyes A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl

A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl

Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl

Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl

A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl

Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl

Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl
