Isenstein

Mystic Circle

which the blast of the northern winds they were on the opened sea and they travelled against north to a land called Island Siegfried only wishes were to defeat the ice princes and under the dragons sign he had a new slave then they saw the coast of Island twelve norns standing at the hills hundred years they were the keepers of their queens realm.
and water fontains clapping at the ice cold stones the wildest water Siegfried has seen in his whole life as they reached the sand of Island Siegfried told one of the norns that he wants to challenge Brunhild and to own her realm but the only answer was that he must be very careful Brunhild had won every fight against all the challengers so the norns lead them to a castle where the Queen were reside fire balls were no man came through were the castle guardians and then they saw Brunhild standing at the gates through thousand flames her beauty shined through hell and she said:
"three competitions you must win to take my soul
and my body will be yours.
I'm the warrior
who has fighten thousand man and no one of them
had seen the day."
Siegfried:
"When the mourning breaks

we'll see each other then in the middle of the castle my sword is sharper and my hand will destroy you
and you ever be my slave."
Siegfried hold his promise, the sword fight he had won and in the second he had thrown the sparrow father third one without problems he took a big stone in his hands and as he won the third Brunhild fall on her knees.
Siegfried:
"so you're my slave for now a present for king Gunther the king of Worms to which we go and you'll be his wife his sister Kriemhild I will take with your help I get her Kriemhild I have jeard so far a goddes of the world."
with the heard of stone she traveled no emotions in her eyes a lost warrior heard with no bride and she swore to Siegfried revenge only his dead she wants to see every night she thought about it and soon it shall be.
then they saw the coast of Worms the king of Burgunden lived and the knights were festive welcome them to their land of peace.
and then a celebration started to the whole castle.
the brightest knights of land came to give to Siegfried honour.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/