So Blue

Fantasia

[Fantasia]
I'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue...
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, hey!If these walls could talk here's what they'll say
I haven't seen my man in about four days
He's been missing and lost since he found out
I done brought another man up in this house
But I swear it isn't my fault, no it's not
About a week ago I caught him, he ain't figured it out
And I can admit that two wrongs don't make it right
Cause since it happened I ain't lying, I can't sleep at nightIf I could take it back, baby I would take it back
Cause see I want my man to stay
But then I see the facts and this is how I react
I wish I handled it another wayI'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, hey
I'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, heyIf I could take back time I would take it back
To the time when you made my heart go boom clap clap
But like I said all good things, they must end
And now we're no longer lovers, not even friends
And if I could I swear I would, I swear I would Make it good, ah, coulda, shoulda, would
I knew I could, I knew I would, probably should, so...If I could take it back, baby I would take it back
Cause see I want my man to stay
But then I see the facts and this is how I react
I wish I handled it another wayI'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, hey
I'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, hey(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
I am so, oh, I am so blue
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
I am so, oh, I am so blu-u-u-u-u-u-ueI'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, hey
I'm so blue, so blue, so blue, so blue
Crazy and gone over you, over you, over you, over yo-o-u, heySee a lot of times, when things happen, you react in the moment
You're not thinking about anything but you know, trying to get that person back or make that person hurt like you hurt
When you have time to sit back and think about it, it's too late, the damage is already done...
