

Another Town (Bonus Version)

Regina Spektor

In another town don't let me forget
In another town mouths full of regrets
In another town please place finals bets
In another town but I know, I know, I know In another town my fingers so cold
In another town my soul feels so old
In another town I've sold all my gold
In another town, I know, I know, I know I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you In another town they've given me the key
In another town I'm drinking for free
In another town a girl just like me
In another town but I know, I know, I know In another town the light fills my room
In another town they're painting my moon
In another town I won't see it soon
In another town, I know, I know, I know I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you I love you
I love
You I love
You I love
