Kat Maslich-Bode

It's Kat Maslich (formerly Bode) and the the other half of Eastmountainsouth

I had written this for my husband on our wedding day in 2004 and used our first daughter (Lula's) in utero heartbeat for percussion in the beginning and end of this song, It took on a whole different meaning when we had our second daughter (Mimi) in March of 2008. I dedicate this song still to the father of our children bur most importantly to Lula and Mimi I had Mary Chapin Carpenter singing harmonies on this,

March
870 Music- Ascap 2020

You came to me
without me knowing
you were the one
you were the one
who made me laugh
you made me see
I felt the sun

and I felt heaven
You give me heaven
it must be heaven
you gave me heaven

The moment when I saw you there
you stole my heart
you stole my heart
and you never cease to amaze my soul I felt safe and now I know

Heaven
You give me heaven
It must be heaven
you gave me heaven

bridge

You came to me
without me knowing

you'd change my life
you'd change my life
never have I been so in love so glad to be
be your wife

you give me heaven
it must be heaven
you gave me heaven
