Saturday morning the sun is high so I can underline

    All of my hopes to get out from my tears

    So I, I can brightenWill be sunshine in me

    I'm living a life inside a broken life

        Will be sunshine in me

I'm living a life inside a blinding lifeEveryday morning I can play with the sun but I see you again

    I wanna forget all your lies so I can go ahead, so I amI can't stand off it

    I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

        I can't stand off it

I'm turning around the same thoughts behindSaturday morning the sun is high so I can underline

    All of my hopes to get out from my tears

    So I, I can brightenWill be sunshine in me

    I'm living a life inside a broken life

        Will be sunshine in me

I'm living a life inside a blinding lifeI can't stand off it

    I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

        I can't stand off it

I'm turning around the same thoughts behindEveryday morning I can play with the sun but I see you again

    I wanna forget all your lies so I can go ahead, so I amI can't stand off it

    I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

        I can't stand off it

    I'm turning around the same thoughts beh
