

I'll Keep Holding On

The Action

I'll keep on holding on
I'll keep on holding on

I know that you're the kind of girl, you've got too much pride
You're scared you love someone, run and hide
Well each and every day and each and every way
My love is growin' stronger
And I know that you can't hold on much longer
When there's no place left to hide
I'll still be by your side
And I'll be (waiting) oh yes, (watching) sure 'nough
(Looking for a chance) a chance to make you mine

I'll keep on holding on, I will now
I'll keep on holding on

I know you're braggin' to your friends that you can't get caught
But baby, you don't know, so it's time you were caught
So love, you'd better plan to make your final stand
No matter where you run now
I'll hold on till my will to resist is gone
Till I get you where I want you
There, love, I'm gonna want you
(Waiting) oh yeh, (watching) sure 'nough
(Looking for a chance) a chance to make you mine

I'll keep on holding on, I will now
I'll keep on holding on

And I'll be (waiting) I'll be waiting (watching) and watching
(Waiting) I'll be looking (watching) over your shoulder
(Waiting) Move, (watching) move a little closer
(Waiting) Come on girl (watching) can you hear me now?
(Waiting) Come on girl (watching) alright, I'll be (Waiting) Come on girl (watching) I'll show you
(Looking for a chance) a chance to make you mine

I'll keep on holding on
I'll keep on holding on
I'll keep on holding on, come on girl now

I'll keep on holding on, alright now
