Simple Minded

Dragpipe

A lot of people think I'm evil
Because I am not in their world
But then again
Who would want to be like themAnd in their weakness they will cheat this
And act like they are always winning
And if you're one of them I have something for you
I'm so, you're soSimple minded
Simple minded
Simple minded
Simple mindedAnd in this situation
Time is changing
I'm still waiting for you to say
Something I understandSo I can deal with you and in your mental little ways
That make you look to me so tasty
I'd like to be inside of you to feel like you
I'm so, you're soSimple minded
Simple minded
Simple minded
Simple mindedI'm so simple minded like the one that
Is so simple minded like the one that
Is so simple minded like you
Is so simple minded like you
I'm so, you're soSimple minded
Simple minded
Simple minded
Simple minded
