Torn Through

Cannibal Corpse

Violently torn through the back of the head as debris from
The skull hits the ground
Writhing and twitching from brains being splattered I'll never get used to that sound
Gaze at the fear in eyes horrified terrified just as a life will expire
Blood drips away from an utter disgrace in hell I will kill you again

Torn through with vengeance o blame
Torn through for wanting you dead

Anger summoned evil deep inside my rotting soul
Remnants of a morbid past implies my mind is out of control
Putrid vision seen before but only seen by me
Screaming voices whisper murder
Pent up wrath is fed with killing sprees

Prolonged brutal rampage slaughter with no end in sight
Remnants of a morbid past implies my mind is out of control

Unforgiving pain is what another death sets free
Sacrifice of sanity accelerates my lack of control

Putrid vision seen before but only seen by me
Screaming voices whisper murder
Pent up wrath is fed with killing sprees

Killing sprees
Killing sprees
Killing sprees
Killing sprees

Eight more to kill
Eight more to kill
Seven to kill

Seven to kill
Seven to kill
Six more to kill

Six more to kill
Six more to kill

Five more to kill

Five more to kill
Five more to kill
Four more to kill

Violently torn through the back of the head as debris from
The skull hits the ground
Writhing and twitching from brains being splattered
In hell I will kill you again

Torn through with vengeance to blame
Torn through for wanting you dead

Four more to kill
Four more to kill
Three more to kill

Three more to kill
Three more to kill
Two more to kill

Two more to kill
Two more to kill
One more to kill

One more to kill
One more to kill
One more to kill
One more killing spree
