The Nothing

The Color Red

Cool down your jets son
This is so in you
The breath you take is mine
This is so in youUntil you see
Wait until tomorrow
Then you're gone
To fadeCool down your jets son
The stars await you
To tell you you're wrong
This is so in youUntil you see
Wait until tomorrow
Then you're gone
To fade
See it's all wrong
But now you're gone
To fadeCan you take it all away
See it's all wrong
Can you take it all away
See it's all wrong
Can you take this one awayCool down your jets son
This is so in youUntil you see
Wait until tomorrow
Then you're gone
To fade
See it's all wrong
But now you're gone
To fadeSee it's all wrong
Can you take it all away
See it's all wrong
Can you take it all away
See it's all wrong
Can you take it all away
See it's all wrong
Can you take this one away
