

Keep It Simple

Tove Lo

I've been deep down in the dirt for some time
Not a clear sound from my heart or my mind
'Cause these words are clinging on for dear life
But I'm breathing, I'm breathing, I'm breathing You got body and my knees, they go weak
Lie awake and read your sext, I can't sleep
I wish I wanted what you want, not yet free
But I'm breathing, I'm breathing, I'm breathing Let me keep it simple
So I don't have to face ya
Let it be just my call
'Cause I ain't ready for ya
Let me keep it simple
So I don't have to face ya
Let it be just my call
'Cause I ain't ready for ya I ain't ready, I ain't ready
I ain't ready, I ain't ready
I ain't ready, I ain't ready
I ain't ready, I ain't ready I go to bed with you, but dream about him
You think I want to? No, I hate that he wins
How to forget how fucking broken I've been
But I'm healing, I'm healing, I'm healing Let me keep it simple
So I don't have to face ya
Let it be just my call
'Cause I ain't ready for ya
(I ain't ready, I ain't ready)
Let me keep it simple
So I don't have to face ya
Let it be just my call
'Cause I ain't ready for ya
(I ain't ready, I ain't ready) Physical to trick your heart
You are moving on
Physical to feel okay
That's what people say
Physical I better try
So this ain't goodbye
Physical to trick your heart
You are moving on (I ain't ready)
Physical to feel okay (I ain't ready)
That's what people say
Physical I better try

So this ain't goodbye (let me keep it simple)
Physical to trick your heart
You are moving on
Physical to feel okay
That's what people say
Physical I better try
So this ain't goodbye (I ain't ready for ya) Let me keep it simple
So I don't have to face ya
Let it be just my call
'Cause I ain't ready for ya
