Waiting for the Night (7'' Version)

Saxon

You got me spinning, spinning around
Don't know if I'm up or I'm down
I'm coming back to you tonightMy pulse is racing, it's out of control
My body's aching, it's taken its toll
I'm coming back to you tonightThis darn freeway's driving me insane
I need a shot, a shot to ease the painI'm waiting, I'm waiting for the night
I'm waiting, bring on the nightI can't wait a minute longer
Every second the feeling's stronger
Coming back to you tonightMy heart is pounding, I need you so much
My body's yearning, I long for your touch
I'm coming back to you tonightThis darn freeway's driving me insane
I need a shot, a shot to ease the painI'm waiting, I'm waiting for the night
I'm waiting, bring on the nighMy mind is drifting, thinking of you
The love you're sending is making it through
I'm coming back to you tonightThe summer sun's still shining bright
Can't last forever, bring on the night
I'm coming back to you tonightThis darn freeway's driving me insane
I need a shot, a shot to ease the painI'm waiting, I'm waiting for the night
I'm waiting, bring on the nigh
