

Hello Summer

Rameez

HELLO SUMMER! BY RAMEEZ

I tried to keep my cool, the phone is always drained,
Then I missed my bus for the broken down crank.

I saw we got a chill, I saw we got pain,
The story of my life every day is the same.
â€™Cause early in the morning and when Iâ€™m still yawning,
Please pull the curtains â€™cause the sun hurts my eyes.
Said myself is boring, winter is snowing,
You wish you were free like a bird in the sky!

Hello Summer! I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my booze away!
Hello Summer! Take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free!

Hello Summer! I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my booze away!
Hello Summer! Take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free!

VERSE 2:

On my way home, I left the keys on the couch.
My boss said the work I should do in my house.
Complaining to my girl, sheâ€™s stressing me out,
She told me I should chill, you gotta move out!
â€™Cause early in the morning, when Iâ€™m still yawning,
Please pull the curtains â€™cause the sun hurts my eyes.
I said myself is boring, winter is snowing,
Wish you were free like a bird in the sky!

Hello Summer! I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my booze away!
Hello Summer! Take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free!

Hello Summer! I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my booze away!
Hello Summer! Take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free!

Hello Summer! I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my booze away!
Hello Summer! Take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free!
