As Time Goes By

Bryan Ferry

You must remember this
A kiss is still a kiss
A sigh is just a sigh
The fundamental things applyAs time goes by
And when two lovers woo
They still say "I love you"
On that you can relyNo matter what the future brings
As time goes by
Moonlight and love songs never out of date
Hearts full of passion, jealousy, and hateWoman needs man, and man must have his mate
That no one can deny
It's still the same old story
A fight for love and glory
