See Her Tonite

The Damned

One, two, three, goWell, it's not so clear she's got nothing to say

It don't happen at all it's not her day

She don't like God and plastic's a con

She can't stand fools who think it's right to be wrongOh, she's so cool see her tonite Yeah, she's no fool I wanna see her toniteShe don't fit in any so called scene

And she don't like going where she's already been

Afraid rock and rolls gonna end up like art

She can't stop what she can't even startAnd oh, she's so cool see her tonite

Oh, she's no fool I wanna see her tonite

Oh, she's so cool I wanna see her tonite

Yeah, she's no fool I wanna see her toniteShe's not so clear, she's got nothing to say

It don't happen at all it's not her day

She don't like God and plastic's a con

She can't stand fools who think it's right to be wrongOh, she's so cool see her tonite

Oh, she's no fool I wanna see her tonite

Oh, she's so cool I wanna see her tonite

Oh, she's no fool I wanna see her toniteI wanna see her tonite

I wanna see her tonite

I wanna see her tonite
