

Hungover

3OH!3

Wake up nine maybe ten
Depending how my head is feeling
Every step that I take is rattling the ceiling
Take a breath brush my teeth
Smell like death even bleach can't erase the taste of last night
I got holes in my clothes
Someone's sweatshirt who knows what I did...When you came over
I shoulda stayed sober
And then I got the cold shoulder
No you know you're the reason every time I feel hungoverPlease don't call please don't text
Because my phone is dead anyways
Shut the shades close the door
And I'll see you in a couple days
Did we kiss, did we fight?
There's a bit of the night that I might not remember
There's a burn on my coat
Cigarettes on my throat
I don't know what we didWhen you came over
I shoulda stayed sober
And then I got the cold shoulder
No you know you're the reason every time I feel hungoverNow my wallet is gone
Find missed called on my phone
Now my exes all now that I'm lonely
Woke up with a tattoo
It looks bad but that's cool
'Cause it reminds me of the shit that we didWhen you came over
I shoulda stayed sober
And then I got the cold shoulder
No you know you're the reason every time I feel hungover
