

Mugshot

Kodacrome

People tell me I outta know better
Its so hard to keep it together I've got this feeling cause my phone keeps ringing and my mind keeps dreaming, and my soul's just screaming out
Hey oh, hey hey oh Just for the record, I've got a clean record I know its gonna change and I can't be blamed
There goes my halo Things are about to change... Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight
Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven And I won't stop 'til I get my mugshot
Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it Its so easy, drinking tequila looking at Tila
At the last bar, I was so famous, I was a rockstar And I lost my jacket when they played Michael Jackson
Dancing all alone cause I own the zone Singing hey oh, hey hey oh Gonna jump in a fountain, climb every mountain
Cutting every line cause I'm out of my mind Singing hey oh, hey hey oh Cause that's just how I roll... Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight
Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven And I won't stop 'till I get my mugshot
Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it And I've never seen a girl look as fine as you
And I'm gonna get your name as my next tattoo And I wanna spend the rest of my life with you
Before the cops come and take me away
