

Serein

Katatonnia

In the Morning
The battle for endurance has been lost
Sold my worth and dignity the same
I am shade
The essence of corroding time So pale next to my love In every way
Meaningless scar
Through the evening
Where our wisdom turns to rust
Fill the gap with lost integrity
I become the one
You haven't seen for years Liberating rain
Two shots and i need more
Adapt to the floor
A taste of the void
Get back and focus again
More of the fire It churns the blood
The waves of dependance
Await to be slain
By memories of old
It churns the blood
The waves of dependance
Await to be slain
By memories of old In every way
Meaningless scar I become the one
You haven't seen for years Liberating rain
Two shots and i need more
Adapt to the floor
A taste of the void
Get back and focus again
More of the fire It churns the blood The waves of dependance
Await to be slain
By memories of old
It churns the blood The waves of dependance
Await to be slain
By memories of old
