

Simple House

Margaret Becker

This house is a holy house
Always under construction
People come in looking for truth
Or just their own reflection Depending on what they find
They pat my back or they speak their mind
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house This house looks the best
When it's not cluttered with opinions
When only the words from the Landlord's mouth
Have absolute dominion From His lips, His lips alone
I want to furnish my humble home
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house I want wisdom in the walls
Understanding will weatherproof
I want love to be the theme
From the basement to the roof There's not enough room for second hand news
Can't build this house on human how to's
I wanna see His touch in every room
I wanna know this house is built on truth I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live, yeah, hey, yeah I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house
I wanna live in a simple house
