

Stanlow

Orchestral Manoeuvres In the Dark

It's our belief eternally
This field remains
Stanlow
No heart or head or mind
No season could erase
We set you down
To care for us
Stanlow A vision fading fast
A billion hearts to mourn
But so restrained
She turns away
Stanlow
I see her face in every day
The same routine along the way
Tonight in a rainstorm
Hello Then again it feels so long
Since one single promise kept
All to say to reason
We won her heart
To say what we want to
Only you just serves you love
Don't want to feel a terminal
And tonight
That all I see
Hello And as she turned we all knew
That her heart was never there
