Magic Carpet

Magic Carpet

Hey, fly away with me to ecstasy, fly away with me to ecstasy
Love can drive away your sorrows, yeah
Love can drive away your fears
Now let me take you somewhere where tranquility is the key
You and I alone baby making sweet love, you knowTake a ride upon my magic carpet
Fly away with me with perfect secret
Let me show you things never seen before
To distant stars we float amongst the Cosmo
Fun and laughter, watch your pretty glow
That's my treat and baby thats my show, oh yeahGirl I love you more than words can tell
You are in heaven, why should I give you any?
Girl I love you more and more each day
Pincher's promise, tell me you will stay'Cause love can drive away your sorrows
Love can drive away your fears
In you I see my bride tomorrow
I know love is here to stayWhile we float upon our magic carpet
Galactic winds are blowing underneath it
And it will take us anywhere we wanna go, yeah
I stop at mars to rock over to Venus
And in your hear a sprinkle gold and stardust
Braise for love I am gonna give you instant love'Cause love can drive away your sorrows, yeah
Love can drive away your fears, yeah
In you I see my bride tomorrow
I know love is here to stayI love it when you're dancing on top of my feet
To the rhythm of our heartbeat
I love it when you're dancing on top of my feet
To the rhythm of our heartbeatFly away with me to ecstasy, fly away with me to ecstasy
You know, love can drive away your sorrows
Love can drive away your fears, my fears, your fears
In you I see my bride tomorrow, I know love is here to stayThe rhythm we are giving is the rhythm of our home
I got to know this woman she's a bone of my bone
And dancin' on top of my feet to the rhythm of our heartbeat
Fly away with me to ecstasy, fly away with me to ecstasyI told you that tranquility would be the key
