Surrender

Blanca

I've never been one to just let go
Thinking I can do this on my own
Here I am once again, out of control

All the right words coming out when I pray
Even though my heart is miles away
Only me to blame
I'm the star of the show

Iâ€™m reaching for something real
I'm done playing pretend
Carry me back to You again

You can take all of me
Every little piece I'm holding
You can invade the very heart of me till I surrender
I'm raising my hands, I'm waving my flag
You can take all of me, all of me
I surrender

So, here it is, all my good and my bad
Walls are coming down like an avalanche
I don't want to fight this love anymore

I've been afraid too long
Hiding from the truth
I need to free, free fall into You

All the fear, all the shame inside of me
All the pride, every insecurity
All the guilt of the secrets that I keep
Take it all, take it all
Every hope, every dream, make them Yours
Be the center of all I'm living for
Let You in like I never have before
Take it all, take it all

You can have all of me

I surrender

You can take all of me, all of me
I surrender
