

Wailing Wall

Todd Rundgren

Theres a grand old maid across the sea
So the story was recalled to me
And from dawn til dark, you hear her call
Down in front of the wailing wall And she cries all day, so sad and alone
Til someone comes along and leads her home
Nobody listens and nobody seems to care
But everyday, youll find them there And kneeling down for sadness sake
Crying just as though their hearts would break
And from dawn til dark, you hear them call
Down in front of the wailing wall And they cry all day, so sad and alone
Til someone comes along and leads them home
You know, I dont listen and you know that I dont care
But everyday youll find me there And kneeling down for sadness sake
Crying just as though my heart would break
And from dawn til dark, youll hear me call
Down in front of the wailing wall

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>