

Sing Me to Sleep

Waking Ashland

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

There is something watching, waiting
There is something passing, casting these shadows
How they make their way into my mind And you'll sing me to sleep, you'll sing to me gently
And you'll sing me to sleep, you'll sing to me
And I'm not alone There is something shining, calling my name
And who are you? What do you want?
I'll claim nothing when you're whispering
The truth has made its way into my head And you'll sing me to sleep, sing to me gently
And you'll sing me to sleep, sing to me gently
And you'll sing me to sleep, sing to me gently
And you'll sing me to sleep, sing to me gently
And I'm not alone
