Sanctuary

Simon Webbe

Can't keep a flower underground
Can't keep the sun from shining down
And I can't make you stay
(Make you stay)You feel your world is undefined
You feel that what you need is time
Open up your wings and find your wayAnd I won't try to hold you back
And I hope you already know thatI'll be your sanctuary
Be the last one left here standing
If you're feelin' all alone
(Feelin' all alone)When the world feels so temporary
And you think there's such a long
Long way to go, you're already home, you're homeYou might be somewhere flyin' free
The same sky is watching over me
Close your eyes and look around
(Look around)Whatever ocean that you cross
Thought you many drift you're never lost
And I will be your solid ground'Cause I know that inside my heart
Gonna get back to where we startedAnd I'll be your sanctuary
Be the last one left here standing
If you're feelin' all alone
(Feelin' all alone)When the world feels so temporary
And you think there's such a long
Long way to go, you're already home
(Already home)
You're homeYou're already here in my arms
The way that you are tonight
Just give me till mornin' comes
It's gonna be all right, it's gonna be all rightI'll
(Sanctuary, sanctuary)
I'll, I, I'll
(Sanctuary, sanctuary)
I'll, IOh, I'll be your sanctuary
Be the last one left here standing
If you're feelin' all alone
(Feelin' all alone)When the world feels so temporary
And you think there's such a long
Long way to go, you're already home, you're homeOh, I'll be your sanctuary
Be the last one left here standing
If you're feelin' all alone

(Feelin' all alone)When the world feels so temporary
And you think there's such a long
Long way to go, you're already home, you're homeOh, I'll be your sanctuary
Be the last one left here standing
If you're feelin' all alone
