

Temptation

Burning Image

Please god, forgive me
But I don't want to fight anymore
I've just been watching my life waste away
Now that you've lost your way
And I don't think that you're going back
Keeping you helpless, keeps me around And when I'm holding you in my arms
And you're feeling all is lost
Take what you want, take what you want Please god, forgive me
But I don't want to live anymore
Now I'm just watching my life waste away
Hey Motherfucker! Well you just can't get out when you want
Keeping your promise, keeps me alive And when I'm holding you in my arms
And you're feeling all is lost
Take what you want, take what you want
