

Bad Luck Charm

The Windmills

(Cabaniss - Quinton)
i'm the ghoul king
of a million dead souls i'm erotic language that was blessed in hell should have said goodbye when you saw those empty eyes i know that you're watching when i'm looking away you got some sweet surprises coming again whispered prayers won't keep you safe from harm never recognize my bad luck charm bleeding deep inside honey? crawl away and hide i'm ready when you're ready come out and play i'll be carving notches in my gun all day
i'm living on a bad luck charm
